“ Fletcher it is with a heavy heart that I express my condolences to you and your family. Joan was a very special person. I encourage you to share the memories of your many years together with both family and friends so that her memory will continue to thrive for years to come. Carry those same memories in both your mind and heart, they can never be taken away and will last a life time. You were both blessed to have found each other and to have spent and shared a life together. May God bless you both and continue to look over her for all of eternity.

I will be eternally grateful for having had Joan in
