

Mrs Joan Elizabeth Larkin Nugent

September 22, 1932 - May 4, 2024

Joan E. Larkin Nugent, loving wife to the late John Carroll Nugent, dearest mother to Sean W. Nugent (Debra), Caran “Sidney” Silver (Brian) and B. Eileen White (Michael), devoted cousin, aunt and friend went home to our Lord and Savior on May 4 from her home in Perry Hall. She was 91.

Joan grew up in South Baltimore, surrounded by her parents, numerous cousins and friends. She graduated from the Institute of Notre Dame and met the love of her life during that time. She married shortly after and moved to Hawaii when John Carroll was deployed. After John Carroll left the Coast Guard, they returned to Maryland and settled in North Baltimore to begin building their family. Her desire to start a family was realized and she welcomed her 3 children shortly thereafter.

Joan spent her early years raising her 3 children and eventually reentered the work force at Maryland Casualty. She also was a constant volunteer to her church, St. Matthew Catholic Church and Good Samaritan Hospital. After retirement, Joan and her husband, John Carroll, settled in Towson, MD. After her husband’s passing, Joan relocated to Brightview in Perry Hall where she finished her glorious and happy life with all 3 of her children and dozens of well-wishers at her side.

“There was no person Joan wouldn’t try and help. She always gave to others.

Finding a more selfless person would be hard to find.”

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Baltimore County Animal Services at 13800 Manor Rd. Balwin, MD 21013

“ Dear Sydney, Eileen and Sean....Your mom was a lovely woman...my fondest memory of her is when I went to FL for Thanksgiving...she gave me a grace period for rent. Sydney, we were roommates 40 years ago. Keeping all of you in my thoughts and prayers. Pattie Carter
