“ To all of dear Joanne's loving family...
I remember so well the first time I met your precious Joanne many, many years ago. We were sitting next to each other waiting in line to give blood at a Red Cross Blood Drive at the Cathedral. We had a wonderful conversation where we shared how very similar our childhoods had been, as we had both grown up living in apartments above our parents' businesses. That was the beginning of the many years of beautiful friendship I shared with Joanne and then with her wonderful family. She was truly a treasure to you and to the many of us who were so blessed to know her. You have been continually in my prayers as I can only imagine how much you miss her. She will live in your hearts, and in those of so many others, forever. I send you all my love...

“ Aunt Jo was a wonderful woman. She was always very upbeat and encouraging with me particularly through college and medical school. I never heard a harsh or pessimistic word from her mouth; just warm and encouraging thoughts.
