“ So sorry to hear about John's passing. May he rest in peace. Too many good memories of family get togethers and volleyball games. I don't know how many balls we popped on the barbed wire fence. The food and friendship was always great. My condolences to you and your family Kathy. May G-d be with you always.

“ I will remember Uncle Johnny as being always funny & generous. WAY BACK in the day I remember my Mom taking me up to Uncle Johnny's house to ride the horses and he was there by my side encouraging me so I would not be scared I I also remember the whole family getting together at Aunt Sue's house for Christmas The fire burning in the fireplace, Aunt Sue's AMAZING table of food , Aunt Bobbi singing & playing her guitar, my Mom just being so Happy her FAMILY was all together & Uncle Johnny always being the Funny guy.....OR SO HE THOUGHT LOL.....GOD BLESS YOU UNK, GIVE MOM A BIG HUG FROM ME, REST IN PEACE , NOW & FOREVER.....💕🙏
