Dad

The world has lost a great one. Loving husband, father, grandfather, dog dad, son, brother, uncle, and friend. Best friend, hero, and idol to his beloved son, Chris. Devoted and loving husband to his wife, Pattie. World's best poppy to CJ and Savannah. A proud army veteran. An extremely hard worker that loved telling stories about his time driving trucks. The young man who fell for his best girl when he met her at a volleyball game. A dog dad who loved his dogs so much - especially Daphne, KC Marie, Dusty, Shelby, and Jordan. The man who devoted his being to being the absolute best father he could be. The man that turned his son into a car nut; who taught him that muscle was the only option. Ever supportive of his son, knowing he could accomplish anything he set his mind to. A man who devoted his life to teaching his boy to love with his whole heart; to never be ashamed to kiss or hug him no matter who he was in front of. A legacy that has been amplified as it passed to his beloved grandchildren. A dad who gave anything for weekends spent at the motocross track with his son. A loving brother to one of his best friends, his sweet sister Karen. His days with her were so cherished when he lost her. A man who couldn't sit still and selflessly spent his free time volunteering at Stella Maris. He has left an unfillable hole in our hearts and lives leaving behind his wife, son, daughter-in-law, grandson, granddaughter, brother, friends and extended family. Chris has said that he wishes he could be half the man he was, and the love that he gave to us all was bar none. He will be sorely missed and forever in our hearts. We love you, dad.

“ I didn't really know John very well but well enough to know he was a terrific and fun man. We volunteered at Stella Maris in the gift shop and I truly know he will definitely be missed. He was like a brother to all even if you met him once so you know how special he was to all of us. A terrific person who loved his family. He will truly be missed. We all love you John. Betty S

“ Dearest neighbors and soul family. Heaven just gained a cheery angel!! John was a cheery fella, a brother to all, and the best dad. He always looked to be the best he could be, and look on the sunny side of attitudes. I have missed you all so much since my Mom died 10 years ago, and Chris grew up, married and moved away. I never saw John outside anymore when I visited Dad. I wish I had known he was ill. I would have added my prayers and healing love to his vibes!! You all are like family to me, and always will be. Love and Hugs. "Aunt" Sabrina
