“ I was saddened to read of “Johnnys’ passing in this mornings Manchester Union Leader. I have many happy memories of our childhood neighborhood with the Hannaways. With deepest sympathy and joy for a life well lived. Patty Dominick Mason

“ John was a wonderful person to both work with and play with. He lightened both our workloads and our lives and had the ability to bring a smile to your face no matter how down you were. He cared about everyone, but was never happier than when he found the light of his life, Beebo, and was able to enjoy his children.
