“ My grandmother's nephew, I never knew you passed away, till I was trying to pull up your dad's obituary. I am so sorry to your wife, for her loss of you. You were always a great man, when I was growing up. I always made you look big to my friends, because you worked for the FBI. My name is Nadine Seaman. Your mom, Betty, was my Baba(Helen Grohol)sister. There was also Catherine Krohn(deceased), and I think a couple others. I'll remember all the times in Old Cranberry. John Michael, you will be missed. Why does God take all the good ones? Rest In Peace.

“ I can't begin to express my profound sadness and sympathy at Jack's crossing to the Other Side. It took me days to write this as every time I began, I couldn't finish through all the tears. There are so many wonderful memories I have of him. And I think I was in his presence when he displayed many of his emotions. I also saw his serious side as well as his side that expressed true joy. I saw the way he demonstrated his love for Morgan. To go through bags and bags of ZuPreem and separate the colors and shapes Morgan liked to eat was a true act of love. I saw him express his frustration and serious side when he and I sat in the jury box at a court case in which we were hoping to speak in order to protect the lives of others. I saw his sadness in the crossing over of your Dad. I was able to see the side of him that felt pure joy— his contagious smile that made his eyes sparkle and his laugh that came from his soul. Buy most of all, I will remember the bond he and I shared as the Outlaws of the McClary family. I LOVED this man. I will cherish every memory I have of him. And I will be forever grateful that our paths crossed in this lifetime. May he Rest In Peace.
