“ I am very sad to hear of John's passing. John was one of the first people I really looked up to and respected as a kid. John was my neighbor when I was 10-14 years old. A couple lessons I learned from him at an early age - work ethic and patience. He stood out to me and does so to this day in terms of being both a genuine and kind person. Most apparent to me then and now is his strength of character. He is, and will remain at the very top of the list of people I have met over the years exuding these attributes from the core in particular. - Scott Rockwell

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I am in total shock. John was my direct supervisor at Diamond Comics for about 3 years. He was a good person with a good heart. He was very understanding and always had a listening ear.

John was an exceptional human being. I worked with him for many years and he will be sorely missed. It is so true when they say the good die young. May he rest in peace. Cliff
