“ Never had I known such a noble soul who suffered for Christ in the end. Fr. John's courage, strength and determination was amazing. This dear soul shared his theology knowledge with me, while he allowed me to pick his brain. He was insanely humorous and it was refreshing to see him. As I watched this magnificent soul inventory his physical losses..the ability to play keyboards, control of speech, etc., my heart ached. He never complained. He told me he was suffering for Christ. I came to understand. Fr. John led me to the Catholic Church after a lifetime of searching for a church. My love of Christ has always been strong. Meeting Fr. John changed my life and will help me to do God's work better. Fr. John, God loves you very much and so do I. Bless you. Until we meet again... chicken wings & wurst! God bless you and your family with comfort and healing, in Jesus name Amen. Tracie
