“ Jack was my father-in-law from a previous marriage and also a wonderful grandfather to my children. He was always kind to us even after my marriage ended. I have to say that the greatest gift Jack gave me was his two wonderful children, Jan and Jay. I love them both with all my heart and they will always hold a very special place in my heart. I was able to have lunch with Jack, Jan and Jay, along with some of my children just before Christmas. It was so good to see him so happy and vibrant despite his years. Rest in peace, Jack, and always know that I will always be there for your children.

Fondly, Charlotte. (AKA, Shots)
