“ *I loved how Joe effortlessly tickled the ivories of the keyboard!
Music was so engrained into his DNA he ALWAYS seemed to be whistling or humming a tune as he contentedly navigated the world.
It was this comfortable and laid-back attitude that made the multi-hour trip to your arts church in VA so enjoyable several years ago.
The world is definitely a little less bright now with his light having been snuffed out. Deep condolences ...*
