“ Mr Joe was not only our neighbor. but my best friend. We shared a lot laughs, some sadness, conversations, food, church, and I'm not sure how many snow storms I drove in to get him to Mass. He was one of the most holy men that I have ever met. Because of him, my faith was able to grow. He was a very humble man and I have thanked God everyday for his awesome friendship. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and may perpetual light shine upon him, may his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed Rest In Peace. Amen. Rest easy my friend until we meet again!!

“ Joe taught me how to be a priest. For over 30 years, Joe opened the Cathedral of Mary our Queen everyday at 5:30am, set up for Mass, ate the body and blood of Jesus, and shared goodness with everyone who met him. I will miss him but trust he is with God. I will see him again and look forward to finally meeting his beloved wife Mary, with all the angels and saints. Joe, don't tip the waitresses in heaven as much as you did the ones down here. They don't need it.
