

Mr. Joseph Vincent Hogan Flanigan

January 21, 1942 - September 21, 2021

Sadly, on Tuesday, September 21, 2021 Joe passed away after a nine month battle with ALS at the age of 79. Joe was the second oldest son of J. Leo Flanigan, Jr. and Evelyn Hogan Flanigan. He is survived by his two loving sons, Joseph Hogan Flanigan, Jr. of Overland Park, KS and Mark McFaul Flanigan of Baltimore, MD.

Joe is also survived by three loving brothers: John L. Flanigan III (Frances), Baltimore, MD; Daniel Philip Flanigan (Lynn), Towson, MD; David C. Flanigan (Stephanie), Wetumpka, AL; and four loving sisters: Marylou Tillman (Jim), Towson, MD; Rosemary F. Beers (John), Towson, MD; Evy Flanigan Sias, (Paul), Tuckerton, NJ; and Susan Flanigan (Michael), Chestertown, MD. Joe is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews and cousins from the Flanigan, Shannahan, McNamara and Quigley clans, as well as his former wife, Mary Michelle Armstrong. Joe was pre-deceased by his loving companions in recent years, Barbara Menear and Alice Koester. Both Barbara's and Alice's families were dear friends and were very caring during Joe's illness, for which Joe's family is very thankful and grateful.

Joe was blessed with two "guardian angels", Sharron Feariby and Jeanise Atkins who gave him daily loving care during the final months of life. Joe's family is thankful and grateful to both of them.

Joe was and our family is grateful to our dear family member Most Reverend Monsignor Richard Tillman (Joe's fishing, golfing and traveling buddy) for his spiritual guidance to Joe and to all of us during this difficult time.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Joe's memory may be made to Helping Up Mission of Baltimore; Fuel Fund of Maryland; and Doctors Without Borders.

Friends and family may pay their respects by attending a Funeral Mass in person or by livestream on Tuesday, October 5th at 11AM. Those wishing to participate via livestream may use this link: www.stjoefullerton.org . Be sure to click on the "livestream" option to view.

“ Joe, You are going on a journey and I cannot go with you, at least not yet. You are going to a place where my son Conor, your nephew Conor, has gone before us.

Would that you could pack me in your suitcase and take me with you, if I could only have a return ticket. To be able to glimpse my son's sweet face, to hear him say, "Hey, Mom, I've been waiting for you."

To know that as any Mother would want to know that her child is safe and happy. And then, say to him, "I cannot stay, I must return for a later train, another time. Keep waiting for me and know you are for all eternity deeply loved, as is your Uncle Joe by all our family."

Joe, your Mom, our Mom is waiting for you to make sure you are safe and happy.

I cannot go on this journey with you because it is not my time. I entrust to you to pack my love for you and my love for Conor in your suitcase. May it keep you warm and safe until we meet again, my dear brother.

And remember to send me souvenir penguin postcards when you arrive at your Heavenly destination.

Blessings and peace, your sister Susan and beach partner, Mrs. White.

“ So many memories of Uncle Joe, out at Canaan Valley especially. From gaming to fishing, and talking about history, trains, and family ties, thank you for always encouraging the passions that we shared.
