

Mr. Joseph Mannion Galvin Jr.

July 3, 1952 - April 30, 2022

Galvin, Joseph Mannion, Jr., Joseph “Joe” peacefully passed on April 30, 2022 after a two-year battle with cancer. He was born on July 3, 1952 to Ruth B. and Joseph M. Galvin of Baltimore, Maryland. Joe spent his entire working career at the Horstmeier Lumber Company, a family-owned business. He began working as a laborer, eventually becoming President. The company closed after 135 years in the Wholesale Lumber Industry. In his leisure time, Joe especially enjoyed traveling, Las Vegas a favorite and visits to Rehoboth Beach and Nags Head (Outer Banks) with his wife. He was an avid golfer (16 rounds “under” par) and Duck Pin bowler (212 High Game Holder) at the Baltimore Country Club. His quiet pursuits included cooking, gardening, and counted cross-stitching. Always the devoted husband (of 29 years) to his wife Karen (nee Nagle), a beloved brother to Joanne Galvin and Mary Logan, and proud father to Joe III, his wife Logan, and grandfather to Carter. Joe was a kind, gentle man, and supportive friend to many.
