“ I knew Fr. Lacey for 20 years, as a spiritual director, colleague, and friend. I almost can't imagine a world without his smile, his sense of humor, his thoughtfulness, his compassion, or a love we shared for Gerard Manley Hopkins, Jerry Seinfeld, and John Denver. I'm grateful to have been a part of such a life well-lived at the service of the Gospel. I'm sure all the angels and saints were singing Thank God I'm a Country Boy when Joe arrived!

Sincere condolences to Joe's family, to his friends, and to the parishioners of St. Alphonsus Rodriguez in Woodstock MD. We're all sad to lose Joe, but happy he finally made it home.

Peace, Gloria Carpeneto
