

Josephine VIctoria Bravo

May 18, 1920 - November 20, 2010

On November 22, 2010, Josephine Victoria Bravo (nee Marshall), a political activist; retired New York city school teacher; community volunteer and owner of a Federal Hill antiques store, died of natural causes at Joseph Richey Hospice in Baltimore. She was 90 and lived in Mt. Vernon. She is survived by her son, Modesto M. Bravo; two daughtgers, Carla M. Bravo Wing and Theresa M. Bravo; grandsons Jarid A. Wing and Nicholas A. Bravo; her brother Bradford Marshall; sister-in-law Lusynthia Marshall; niece Brenda Marshall; and nephew Bradford Marshall, Jr; Her husband of 33 years, Modesto Ruperto Bravo died in 1980.

Funeral Arrangements

Viewing 10 A.M. at church, funeral services are set for 11 A.M., Saturday November 27th at Mt. Calvary Episcopal Church, 838 N. Eutaw Street in Baltimore.

Interment Arrangements

Interment St. Mary's Cemetery in Yonkers, NY