

Mrs. Julie Ann Somers

July 31, 1965 - April 22, 2016

Julie Ann Somers, 50, devoted wife, mother, daughter and sister passed away on April 22 in Baltimore, MD. She was a beloved teacher at Loch Raven and Pikesville High Schools and was greatly admired and respected for her work as a Social Studies Resource Teacher and as an Assistant Principal at Pikesville Middle School. Julie graduated from Lee-Davis High School and Randolph-Macon College in Virginia and received her Master's degree from Notre Dame University in Baltimore. She is survived by her husband John Hanmer and her daughters Madeleine and Erin Moore of Baltimore and her husband's children (Hannah, Erin and James). Also surviving are her parents, James and Janet Somers, and her sister and brother, Jill Aveson (Bobby) and John Somers (Susan) all of Richmond, VA, several nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Julie was full of love and life and will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her.

Please omit flowers. A memorial scholarship fund is being established in Julie's name to benefit Loch Raven High School students. Please contact the family for details.
