Tribute Wall

“ Besides sharing our same first name and nickname (Larry), Mr. Wescott and I also shared quite a number of Boy Sout Troop 173 meetings and camping trips even before I was old enough to join the Boy Scouts. He was my Assistant Scoutmaster. My father, Calvin LaMotte was my Scoutmaster who took me to many scouting events early in my life. I started playing my guitar while I was in the Scouts and would bring it along on some camping trips. I can still hear Mr. Wescott calling, “Hey Larry, can you play ‘I Wanna Go Home! I Wanna go Home! Oh, How I Wanna go Home!’” (Detroit City by Bobby Bare) again and again. We always would laugh and laugh. He was a good guy and always helped his Scouts grow up to be good men!
