“ The time she invited us over for dinner and she had the "magic ravioli" which i couldn't stop eating. They were just too good. Ever bite was better then the last. I had to ask, what is in the ravioli that makes it so special? She smiled and replied, "I don't know, they come out of a box in the freezer." Everyone at the table laughed, I knew what she really meant was love is the magic ingredient and that at the dinner table with my family I was lucky to have that special moment, so special, I could taste it.
