“ Mom mom, it has finally came to this! I'm going to miss you. I miss coming down OC, coming home from the boardwalk and you waiting up just to listen to the kids and how much fun they had. I'm going to miss our little talks while we were making breakfast while everyone else was still asleep. One thing I will not forget is the time you and Pop took me to Disney, and put me on the haunted house ride and said it's only a ride, you will be ok! 😂😂😂 I came off that ride crying like a 2 year old throwing a temper tantrum. But most of all, I just miss you, your voice, your warm welcoming hugs, the long hugs and kisses goodbye as we would leave. I love you mom mom and I know you are in a better place, I know you are happy that you are finally back with Pop and his snoring 😊😊. Anyway I just love and miss you!

“ What a wonderful sister-in-law. Now we live with memories of her to treasure in our heart. Joel, Lynn, Tim, and Kim. You were blessed to have her for a mom. May your memories ease the loss you feel when you think of her.

Ms White, I was shocked to know that you passed. I could not believe it until I called your daughter Lynn. You were the kindest person I have ever known. You were very clean and unique in all ramifications. The first time I had your shift, your apartment was so beautiful and I said to you, “Your apartment is a confirmation of your name” and you smiled. I was always looking forward to coming around you and taking a walk with you. You were very easy going, very peaceful and caring. I indeed miss you.
