“ It's been a very long time since I've seen Lucy, but I never forgot her. I met her the year she was president of the Junior League of Baltimore. I had been invited to join and was in my provisional year. To me, that meant I was on probation and might not be allowed to join. Lucy was very welcoming and was invited to my 40th birthday party. Unknown to me, my husband had arranged for a male stripper to come and entertain us. I was horrified! I was sure this would negate my joining the JL. I looked around to see the effect this was having on Lucy. Much to my shock and surprise, there was Lucy, dancing around, laughing and holding a pin to try to pop the balloons concealing the privates of the stripper. What a gal! What an inspiration.

“ Lucille and the Dreamettes: she was truly “one of a kind,” a sparkling star. She’s going to be missed, but alive in many hearts.

“ As a friend and fellow classmate of Lucy's at RPCS, although I have strayed far from Maryland since graduation, I will always remember Lucy as our class sunshine and purveyor of fun, larger than life, full of radiant energy and always ready for some mischief. I am sure she has brightened lives wherever she went and will never fade from our collective memories. My deepest condolences to her family for their profound loss.
