“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of Sr Magdalita, and regret not haven taken the time to send her a card or greeting in recent years. She was my eighth grade teacher at St Paul's School in Ellicott City. Her students thought the world of her. She was clearly interested in our welfare and wanted all of us to succeed. She was kind and caring.

Of all of the teachers I had in grade school, high school, college and medical school, she was definitely one of the best and had a major impact on my life and career.

God bless you, Sister Magdalita. Your are not forgotten.
