“ WE WERE JUST LAUGHING TOGETHER ON FRIDAY, AS I SAT NEXT TO YOU AND PRETENDED I UNDERSTOOD HOW TO READ ONE OF YOUR BOOKS...THAT WAS IN JAPANESE...THAT WAS GOING TO BE OUR NEXT MISSION; TO TEACH ME THE LANGUAGE....WHEN I HUGGED AND KISSED YOU GOODBYE ON FRIDAY... I FELT THE JOURNEY WAS COMING NEAR.. BUT HOPED THAT THIS FEELING WOULD NOT COME TO REALITY.... I AM HAVING A VERY HARD TIME GRASPING THE LOST OF YOU... I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH... THANK YOU FOR THE WISDOM AND TALKS WE WOULD HAVE EVERYDAY... THANK YOU FOR ACCEPTING ME... YOU WILL FOREVER BE IN MY HEART.

“ Akira, I want to say, we're so sorry for your loss, which we are, but more than that, it's your mom. Your mom stood by you, we saw her on fields long ago when you and Chris spent time training, competing with, and against each other. Your mom supported you as a child, and as an adult. She was proud of you, and will always be a part of you. You are fortunate you had the time with her that you did. Akira, you and your family are blessed, and will forever be better individuals for experiencing her love. Our thoughts are with you always.
