“ Mrs. Engel was such a beautiful person. Having worked with her for a year and a half, I came to know her quite well. She was always smiling when she saw me and made sure to tell me that she'd be having Sunday brunch, so that I would not worry about her. Like all of the residents at Edenwald, Mrs. Engel deserved the very best treatment and care. I will always hold very sweet memories of her. From the lengthy walk to the café to get a Starbucks frappé with a neighbor, to the day she pulled the fire alarm on the fifth floor terrace, thinking it was the door opener. She was cherished by so many, she'll be missed dearly. I feel so honored to have helped her every day that I worked. May she rest peacefully. (Brad Brown, Edenwald Dining Services)
