“ Dear family of Mallory Yearly,
I was sorry to read of her passing. She and my late mother, Nancy Roberts Harwood Lambert, were childhood and adult friends, along with Dorsey. Mother often recounted stories of this strong relationship, their adventures and how close they were. Although they stayed in contact until sometime in the 1960s I think, she continued in Mother's heart and reminisces until her death in 1995 of heart disease. She was here in Atlanta, close to us and her only grandchild, Michael Harwood Winn. Seeing her name in the newspaper today jolted me back to the Baltimore and Roland Park of their youth...and mine also.
