

Mrs. Margaret "Peggy" Coster

September 24, 1920 - October 25, 2017

Margaret "Peggy" Coster of Towson, Maryland, passed away at Stella Maris, Inc. on October 25, 2017. She was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph B. "Ben" Coster, Jr. in April, 2015. Peggy is survived by her daughters, Claire C. Geltz (Tim), Elizabeth C. Grande, and son Joseph B. "JB" Coster III, four grandchildren, Christine Olinger (Kelly), Timothy J. Geltz (Sarah), Amy Geltz, Jill Steeves, and seven great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her sister, Catherine "Kitty" Trent.

Peggy was the second of four daughters who was born September 24, 1920 to Arthur and C. Bernadine Ringgold at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She grew up in the Towson area, married J. Benjamin Coster, Jr. in 1944. She was a homemaker, doll collector, designer and hobbyist. She and Ben were permanent fixtures in the Towson Area. They would walk in the early mornings at Towson Town Center where she earned the nickname of the "Candy Lady" because she would carry bags of candy and offer them to the early Morning walkers and workers on each floor.

A private family service is being planned. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Stella Maris, Inc., Hospice at Stella Maris or an Alzheimer research organization of your choice.
