“My dear, sweet Titi Luisa. She was the best Aunt. She was there for me and my siblings in our youth. Always thrilled to see and spend time with her. When she visited she was like a rock star! We loved her so very much! She would be so patient with me trying to curl my very straight hair. She let me borrow her beautiful crucifix when I made my Holy Communion. I was so proud! I attended her Jubilee a few years ago with my sister and two of our cousins and she was so proud! Titi, may you rest in our heavenly Father's arms. You served Him well and you finally get to meet Him. Give Papi and Mami and the rest of our family hugs from us. You were loved dearly!
