

Maria Grazia Corona

January 3, 1947 - April 6, 2026

Maria Grazia Corona, lovingly known as Nonna, passed away peacefully on April 6th at the age of 79.

Born on January 3, 1947, in Sardinia, Italy, she was the cherished daughter of Frank and Rosa DiPasquale. In 1960, she immigrated to the United States, where she built a life defined by devotion to family, enduring traditions, and unwavering hard work. She made her home in Baltimore, carrying with her the warmth, culture, and spirit of her homeland.

Nonna was the heart and soul of her family. She had a true gift as a hairdresser, touching the lives of many through her skill and care. She also possessed a remarkable green thumb—her plants and gardens flourished under her loving attention.

She found joy in creating with her hands, and her beautiful cross-stitch work will be treasured by her family for generations to come.

One of her greatest joys was time spent with her grandchildren, especially playing scopa—a beloved tradition. She also loved to travel, particularly with her sister, cherishing memorable trips to Alaska and returning to Italy.

She is survived by her two sons, Robert (wife Sue) and James (wife Lisa); her beloved grandchildren, Dominic, Emma, Anna, Gabriella, and Leah—who knew her simply as Nonna and adored her deeply; her brother Gino and his wife, Marlis; and her nieces and nephew, Joe, Cindy, and Kathy. She was preceded in death by her sister, Nancy.

Friends may call at the Stella Maris Chapel 2300 Dulaney Valley Road on Monday April 13, 2026 from 10-11am. followed by a Memorial service at 11:00am.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Stella Maris in her memory.

Nonna's legacy is one of love, tradition, creativity, and family. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

“ I will always remember the parties at Wise Avenue and having my Aunt Maria with us. Some of my fondest memories are of visiting her at the beauty salon in the Parkville Shopping Center with my sister while we stayed with our grandmother. She was always happy to see us, and made us feel welcomed. She will be missed.
