“ Marie we will always remember the wonderful interactions between members of our families enjoyed during the past 65 years. You have been more than an Aunt to my children and a sister to my wife and me. You were endowed with a spirit of love and understanding and shared both your enthusiasm and material assets with anyone in need. You were hand picked by God to fulfill your life long passion for nursing and motherhood. You are a mirror of mom and provided dedicated nursing skills to both your husband Tom and youngest daughter Wendy lessening their pain and easing them through the many years of failing health. You are now resting peacefully with Mom, Tom and Wendy, your final WISH. Please give them our love and save a place for us.

Love: Your Brother Richard
