“ Erin, Jim, John, and Bob,

We are very sorry for your loss. May you find peace that Mark is in heaven.

One of my most vivid memories of Mark was when I was a child. A visit with Nana, and Pop Pop always meant being entertained by the Hamilton boys... going on their paper routes...a trip to Tomney's for candy, or going to the neighborhood snowball stand. It was a beautiful sunny day, I was probably no more than 8 or 9 years old, Mark 12 or 13. We were eating our snowballs when an older neighborhood boy came over and dumped his red cherry snowball on my head with the sticky syrup running down my hair and all over my clothes. Well, I never saw Mark run so fast. He caught him and dumped his snowball on him! Mark was a big brother that day.

May our memories provide comfort and connection to each other.

*With love,
Amy, Sam, Sean, and Zach*
