Mark participated in the SPREAD program at St. John's the Evangelist Church once a week before the pandemic. Mark loved the outdoors. Walks, running and sitting in the sun on the porch were some of his favorite activities. He was known for his favorite game of 'catch me if you can'. Sprinting away and then stopping to see where you were. He was affectionally called 'twinkle toes' as he would run on his toes waiting for you to catch up to him.
