“Marlene was my best friend for 30 years. We did so many things together and talked on the phone sometimes for hours, even though she lived right across the street from me. We went to the movies, we went to lunch. If we were gardening and saw each other out front, we would half the time stand in the street and talk until dark, not getting much gardening done. We would tell each other things that we wouldn't discuss with anyone else. She was like a second mother to me. Unfortunately, we had a falling out the past two years and there are many things I would have liked to share with her but now I can't. I have many memories that I will treasure. Just regret that we didn't connect after she moved from her house across the street. Treasure your loved ones as life goes by so quickly and you never get that time back.”
