

Mrs. Mary Bowman

December 10, 1931 - December 16, 2016

Mary Louise Woodford Bowman of Timonium, Md died peacefully on December 16, 2016. She was a devoted mother, grandmother and loyal friend. Born in Madison, Wisconsin on December 10, 1931 to Mary Chalfant Woodford and Clark Burton Woodford.

She was estranged from her only husband, Donald E. Bowman , former President of T-Rowe Price Associates and Bowman Financial. She is survived by her two children: Marylouise Chalfant(Missi) of Timonium, and Clark Woodford Sink Bowman who resides in the Canton area of Baltimore. She has two grandchildren, Samantha Mary and Jackie.

Known by her friends as “Weze”, she received a Masters in Reading from Loyola University, which led her to become a second grade teacher at Cathedral School . Her undergraduate degree is from the University of Wisconsin where she joined the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity and met Donald. Moving eventually to Annapolis, MD where Donald taught at the Naval Academy, and Weze at Edgewater School. Donald eventually became an employee of T-Rowe Price which brought them to Baltimore. She was an active class mother at Roland Park Country School and the Friends School, involved in PTA and numerous activities at her children’s schools.

Upon retiring from Cathedral School where she made many friends and her students both loved her and admired her, she became involved in the Garden Club in her neighborhood of Murray Hill Circle. She was also active in the Women's association at Brown Memorial Woodbrook Presbyterian Church where she sat on committees and the Session (Board). Weze was also very active in the Womans Club of Roland Park and her Baltimore Chapter of Pi Beta Phi.

Weze's love of nature and animals was present in everything she did. She travelled to Alaska a few times and was intrigued by the culture and the beauty of the state. She was an avid gardener as well.

Weze lived a life full of happiness, love, respect and gratitude. She loved her children, grandchildren, and beloved pets.
