“ I have very fond memories of Sister Mary Lou during her time at Holy Ghost Parish in Rochester, NY. We volunteered together at many events and attended bible studies together. She was a very dear lady. We miss her.

“ I tutored reading under Sister Mary Lou's guidance shortly after I retired in 2005 until she moved to the Mother House. I missed her after she left but we did correspond some. I know how much she missed the children and teaching. I am saddened by her loss and will miss her warmth and kindness. She was truly a blessing to all the lives she touched. My deepest sympathies go out to her family and the School Sisters of Notre Dame in her loss.
