“ My sweet and feisty mother-in-law we are so very sad about losing this strong woman.

Mary followed her older sister Cassie out of high school to work at AT&T. They began as operators (for those too young to remember, you used to be able dial 0 on your phone and talk to a real person for help). Mary worked for AT&T as the company changed to Verizon, and she changed from Operator to Project Manager, commuting to DC while being a wife to Greg and mom to her three boys. I have learned so much from her. Her no nonsense attitude, her ability to speak her mind and her strength in the face of such incredible tragedy and loss she'd faced. I loved hearing stories she told me about growing up with her 11 brothers and sisters, all the craziness that went on in their house with her sisters as they grew up. She shared stories about a time so different from now, but what is the same were her feelings toward her family, the incredible love she and Greg shared, the losses she felt particularly when her son Dennis was killed. She stayed with us for a couple weeks after this horrible time, and as incredibly difficult as it was for everyone we were so grateful to be able to be there for her. Speaking with her during this time allowed me to marvel at her strength, determination and her never failing ability to take care of herself, know how to ask for what she needed and have things her way. She was a force to be reckoned with and I am so thankful to have had her be a part of my life. We will all miss her very much.

“ So sorry for your family's loss. I worked at NCGH with her mother-in-law for many years. May God grant you peace and know that Mary Ellen is in a better place with no pain or sadness.
