“ Sister Jacquelyn was a favorite teacher of mine when I attended the Institute of Notre Dame. She understood that not everyone was great at math. I had her for Algebra and Geometry. I barely passed Algebra and I think she fudged a few grade points to allow me to get through Algebra. She was really quite a beautiful woman and it was rumored that she had been a model in New York before joining the SSND order. Thank you, Sister. May you rest in peace. ”
