“ Sister Xavier was a very special person to our family. My aunt, Georgia Marie Kraning, and Sister Xavier were very close and were stationed together often. Xavier attended countless family celebrations over the many years and I would consider her a dear family member. I have so many memories that include her at our homes, at St. Michaels/Frostburg, Sacred Heart/Baltimore, the SSND Mother House, and Notch Cliff to name a few.

It had been years since I have seen her as I moved away decades ago, but she remains dear to me. Her warmth, kindness, service, faith and friendship is an example for all of us.

I will keep her in my prayers and memories. With love, Kevin

“ Sister Xavier was an inspiration for a generation of students at St. Michaels School in Frostburg, MD. She taught Religion, Math, Art and History along with the long forgotten art of handwriting. She held her students accountable to themselves and for their relationship with the Lord. Anyone blessed to have been her student knows the impact that she has had on their life. She was my first real mentor and its is because of her that my faith was provided a foundation upon which to grow into adulthood. If not for Sister Xavier I may have never strived for success academically and I doubt I would still be practicing my faith. Nor would I have been determined to send my children to Catholic school so they could learn and value their faith. To this day I can not say the rosary without reflecting upon Sister Xavier and the wisdom she imparted to the children of St. Michaels.
