

Ms. Mary Carol Paulus

November 26, 1936 - November 24, 2017

On November 24, Mary Carol Paulus, beloved daughter of the late Margaret Caroline (nee Huighouse) and William W. Paulus; devoted sister of the late William Kerry Paulus; dear friend of Jean Putnam Jacocks and Cornelia Merriman Ives.

Ms. Paulus was born and raised in Grand Rapids Michigan. She graduated from the University of Michigan with a BA and MLS.

Coming to Baltimore in 1959, she worked for several years as a children's librarian at the Enoch Pratt Free Library before transferring to the Baltimore County Public Library where she worked until she retired in 2006.

Active in the American Library Association, she was a member of both the Caldecott and Newbery Award committees who annually recognize illustrators of celebrated picture books as well as authors who have made notable contributions to children's literature.

For several years she wrote a regular column in the Baltimore Sun reviewing notable books for children.
