

Mrs. Mary Dugan Shipley

August 14, 1932 - March 17, 2015

On March 17, 2015, St. Patrick's Day, Mary Dugan Shipley died in her home surrounded by her loving family, due to complications from chronic obstructive pulmonary disease. She was 82. Mackie was a dedicated obstetrics nurse for 38 years, welcoming many babies into this world at Greater Baltimore Medical Center and Women's Hospital. Mackie was born to Ferdinand Chatard Dugan, Jr. and Mary Macgill Dugan on August 14, 1932, in Catonsville, Maryland. In addition to being an avid reader, Mackie found enjoyment as an accomplished artist and traveling the world extensively. Most of all she was proud to be the mother of six loving children, ten grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. She is survived by her brother Captain Ferdinand Campbell Dugan. She was predeceased by her husband Guy Stevenson Shipley, Jr., and her son, Michael Dan Shipley. Her legacy lives on with Patrick Macgill Shipley and his wife Susan, Jane Mules and her husband James, Margie Macgill Wright and her husband Richard, Guy Stevenson Shipley III and his wife Kathleen, and Mark Alexander Shipley and his wife Nancy. She also leaves behind her grandchildren, Brandon Barrow, Patrick Keith, Michelle Mules, Mathew Wright, Alexander Wright, Robert Shipley, Kathryn Shipley, Emily Shipley, Michael Shipley and Jake Shipley. Mackie has one great-granddaughter named Quinn Barrow.

Mackie's life will be celebrated by a memorial service on April the 10th at 11:00. Following the service, friends and family are invited to the home of Alec and Nancy Shipley.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Wounded Warrior Project or Hospice and Community Care in York, PA.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

APR 10. 11:00 AM (ET)

St. James Episcopal
My Lady's Manor
3100 Monkton Road
Monkton, MD 21111