“ Mrs. Mc Carron is the mother of my best friend Mary Agnes. I met Mary Agnes while studying at Boston College. Mary Agnes invited me to her home to meet her family in Baltimore during Thanksgiving. This was my first time visiting Baltimore and of course my first "American Thanksgiving." which happened to be on my birthday. The McCarron family welcomed me as if I was a lost relative. Mrs. McCarron had a feast waiting for us. A cornucopia of pleasures along with a surprise birthday cake. The atmosphere was festive and the kinship was so real. Each and every time I visited the Mc Carrons it was the same. Hospitality knew no bounds at the Mc Carrons. Mrs. Mc Carron radiated with love and grace as the wife of Mr. Mc Carron and the mother of Sr. Patti, Mary Agnes, Kathy, and Ed. She always had hope and inner strength in the times of uncertainty and great suffering. Her unrelenting devotion to her family was admirable and in reality she did have the most important job in the world, as a mother. And what a success! I admired her in her many ways however, her role as a strong, compassionate, honest, intelligent and selfless Catholic woman stood out to me as virtues all persons should strive for. Thank you Mrs. McCarron for your kindness toward me and my family. Your endless prayers sent my way were not in vain. You will be greatly missed, but not forgotten. To the McCarron family we send you our sincerest condolences and wish we could be there now to celebrate the life of a wonderful woman. “ I have a lot of fond memories of Winnie. She and I used to laugh when people would confuse us because we both had the same haircut and smile. I recall one time, when Winnie, Jerry, Fred and I were on the board of the IND Parents Club, Fred and I were going to a Board meeting when another Board member said to me ‘Hi Winnie, where is Jerry tonight.’ We had a lot of laughs over that. Winnie was a ‘Great Lady’ and will be missed.

“ So sad to hear of the passing of Winnie. We met many years ago when our children attended St. Pius in the first grade. I will always remember how sweet she was and I send my deepest condolences to S. Patty and family.

“Mary Elizabeth was the personification of hospitality. She opened her home to so many of us who became her "extended family." Many people, including "the nuns" will always cherish her smile, her warmth, and her generosity. I'm sure that she and Jerry together are catching up with old friends and relatives in heaven now. My prayers continue for Patty, Kathy, Mary Agnes, Edward, Maureen, Rick, Emily, Brendan, and Maeve--and all the family who will miss her loving presence so very much.

God bless.
