

Mary Louise Franz

September 8, 1926 - June 10, 2009

On June 10, 2009, Mary Louise Franz, 82, of Baltimore, at her home in Roland Park Place. Beloved mother of Douglas K. Franz and his wife Vicki and Gordon T. Franz and his wife, Jan. She lived a colorful urban life in Federal Hill, made contributions to social change and historic preservation, was known for her love of music, books, movies and cats. She devoted her career as a clinical social worker with Johns Hopkins Hospital, Dept. of Psychiatry, Huntington's Disease Center to teach, research and impact those lives shattered by HD from 1980-2000. She received the prestigious Marjorie Guthrie Award for Outstanding Service to the Huntington Disease Community in 1992. A graduate of Goucher College, Masters of Social Work from University of MD, Baltimore and Masters of Liberal Arts from Johns Hopkins University. She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth T. Wise of Lutherville, two sons and four grandchildren.

Funeral Arrangements

On June 19, 3 to 6 P.M., friends and family are invited to participate in a Celebration of Life at Roland Park Place, 830 W. 40th Street, Baltimore, MD.

Memorial Donation

Memorial tributes will be targeted to Patient Advocacy and Support, Huntington's Disease Center, dispersed through the clinical social worker. Donations should be made payable to Johns Hopkins University, mailed to

Johns Hopkins Medicine, Dept. of Psychiatry, Huntington's Disease Center, 100 N. Charles Street, Suite 110, Baltimore, MD 21201. Please indicate in the "memo" Mary Louise Franz.