“ Michael was a wonderful classmate at Baltimore City College High School Class of 1950. He was a great athlete but always humble in his successes. Michael will be remembered for his big smile and warm greetings at school. Just this past Friday at a reunion lunch we were able to take a moment of silence in memory of our dear friend Michael. He will be missed by his classmates and friends. Our sincere condolences, John Heyn, President, Class of 1950
