“ Lindsay and Scott,

I was so saddened to hear of Nancy's passing today from Carol and Larry Jepson. She had so many difficulties in the latter half of life, since your dad's untimely passing and her own illness/recovery. I know that her life since her stroke was not easy, but you supported her so well, giving her many good years to follow, in which she got to watch you both become successful (something in which she took great pride!) and watch her grandchildren grow.

Of course, not a Thanksgiving passes when I don't think of her, and of all of you. Our families had a lot of fun together in Crofton, for sure. Traditions do live on - just this year, we attempted a progressive Thanksgiving with another family!

Sophisticated, graceful, gentle, intelligent, witty, social, well-mannered, interested in the welfare of others - all these qualities come to mind when I think of your mom. I remember with fondness the day when she had Matt and I, and my mom and Dick over to her place in the city to celebrate our upcoming wedding - such a lovely thing to do! We were so impressed by her beautiful Baltimore digs and so thankful for such a lovely get-together. Now, 19 years later, I remember Nancy fondly.

I will let my mom know the news. She's in rehab again following a fall - this time a fracture in her C1 vertebra - so she'll be there til she can take the cervical collar off and move around some. I'll be visiting in about two weeks, and we'll surely have a toast to Nancy.

We are still in Indiana, PA, and do get down to MD now and again. My email is jane.baumer@gmail.com and I am on Facebook if any of you are!

*All our love in your time of sorrow,
Jane Potter Baumer*
