

Mrs. Nancy Leigh Slacum (nee Edelen)

September 5, 1956 - September 5, 2023

On September 5, 2023, Nancy Leigh Slacum (nee Edelen) beloved mother of William John Slacum and his wife, the late Lauren (nee Spivey); beloved daughter of the late James G. Edelen Jr. and Elizabeth B. Edelen; devoted sister of James G. Edelen III., Elizabeth S. Gemmill, Sarah E. Cocco, and Anne F. Elko. Also survived by loving nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at MITCHELL-WIEDEFELD FUNERAL HOME INC. 6500 York Rd. Balto. MD 21212 on Saturday, September 16th from 10-11 AM. A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday at 11AM. In lieu of flowers, memorials in her name may be made to Maryland SPCA and the Defenders of Animal Rights.

Previous Events

Visitation

SEP 16. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Mitchell - Wiedefeld Funeral Home, Inc.
6500 York Road
Baltimore, MD 21212
(410) 377-8300
general@mwfuneralhome.com

Memorial Service

SEP 16. 11:00 AM (ET)

Mitchell - Wiedefeld Funeral Home, Inc.
6500 York Road
Baltimore, MD 21212
(410) 377-8300
general@mwfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

PT

“ Hi, I knew Nancy when she worked at M@T bank. Very nice lady. Does anyone know any details of what happened? Thank you. Paul Terranova

Paul Terranova - October 09, 2023 at 11:42 AM

DR

“ My playmate and partner in crime from age 2-14. At age 4, Nancy, Anne and I were captured by the notorious Mr. Ingram and hauled to the office of the dreaded Ms. Mahan, principal of PS221. We didn't even go to school there and already in trouble. Family lore is that the twins and I had to be separated at kindergarten classes because we couldn't be trusted to behave together. Nancy and I threw mud on Ms. Levy's windows and we got completely busted. We sledded together down Lochlea in front of a car and probably shouldn't have survived that one. As we grew up together, I'm pretty sure it was Nancy who was the bad influence. Growing up in Mount Washington was special and sharing it with Nancy made it more so. She is large in my childhood memories and I will never forget her.

Davy Redding - September 13, 2023 at 07:45 PM