

Mrs. Nancy Gray Waller

January 26, 1931 - December 8, 2020

Nancy Gray Waller, A homemaker and retired kindergarten teacher died due to complications of COVID-19 at Bonnie Blink, the Maryland Masonic Homes in Hunt Valley. She was 89 years old and a longtime resident of Murray Hill. She was the beloved wife of 62 years of the late Colonel Alan M. Waller Sr. USAF and an AT&T executive whose death occurred in 2016. She is the dear mother of Alan M Waller, Jr. (Edee, nee Finney) of Ruxton, James J. Waller (Sally, nee Fitzpatrick) of West Towson and Anne Waller McAvoy (Mac) of Monkton; devoted sister of Sarah G. Tateosian of York, PA. and the late James K. Gray, Jr. of State College, PA. Also survived by eight grandchildren.

A Memorial Service will be held at a later date due to the restrictions imposed by the pandemic.

In lieu of flowers, memorials in her name may be made to Ladew Topiary Gardens 3535 Jarrettsville Pike, Monkton, MD 21111.

Tribute Wall

LM

“ *Mr.waller I am sorry to hear about your mother
She was great
Larry miles*

Larry miles - December 18, 2020 at 06:44 AM

PY

*Alan, Jimmy and Ann and Families-
I'm saddened to hear of your Mom's passing. What a sweet lady with a gentle, quiet demeanor as petite as her stature...to me anyway, I know it's quite different when she's your Mom. I'll always remember how wonderful she always looked to play tennis at VCC. As Bobby Waters says about growing up in Thornleigh and spending summers at VCC...your Mom is a real "Hall of Famer". We are living in such a difficult time to lose a loved one. I'm sure your loss was made even more difficult by restrictions of Covid. I can't even imagine how hard it had to have been. My heart breaks for you. We lost our Mom in April and only recently had a very small memorial service.
Peace and Blessings to All of You.
Pattie Rock Young*

Pattie Rock Young - January 20, 2021 at 05:35 PM