I worked with John for a number of years. He was my trusted “go to person” in Baltimore when I needed help, which he delivered with a “can do” attitude. John and I shared many laughs during business meetings and business dinners. My condolences to Johns Family. Henning Nielsen (retired from Maersk Inc).

Sunday, January 19. I'm am so sorry! After speaking with you the middle of last week, Barbara, and noting the memorial service for John, I promptly forgot it and just remembered it was yesterday!! I would very much have liked to have been there---John and I had such good conversations on and off the tennis court. Although I hadn't contacted him in recent months, I will always remember his pleasant and jovial personality.

My sympathy to all the family.
