

Miss Noreen Patricia Collins

April 10, 1931 - May 15, 2020

Noreen Patricia Collins beloved daughter of the late Mary D. (nee Zeller) and Joseph W. Collins; dear sister of the late Marcel C. Baker (the late Charles D. Baker Sr.) ; dear aunt of C. Daniel Baker Jr. (Susan) and Brent J. Baker (Collett). Also survived by two great nephews and two step great nephews.

Service and Interment private.

Memorials in her name may be made to the School Sisters of Notre Dame
6401 N. Charles St. Baltimore. MD 21212.

Tribute Wall

SV

“ So sad to hear the news recently of Noree's passing, she was a lifelong friend of my mother, Mary Reynolds, and godmother to my brother Paul.

She was one of the most thoughtful people I've ever met, never forgot a birthday, or an anniversary, and I regret that we did not keep in touch more frequently after my mother's passing in 2011.

Rest in peace, Noreen you were much-loved, and a one-of-a-kind personality! There will never be another one like you!

Sam Vinovich

Sam Vinovich - May 19, 2021 at 05:45 PM

JS

“ Our condolences to Noreen's family for their loss. Noreen was a special person ...passionate about life, kind, feisty and very articulate. We were always captivated by her vivid stories when visiting her, seated in her dining room with treats always on the table. She always added fun and excitement to our parties and family events where she danced and was always willing to play the piano. They'll never be the same.

And as Noreen always wrote in her sweet "Thank You" notes to us, "Thank You for Being a Friend".

Her memory is a blessing,

Joe Sr. and Amanda DiMaggio

Joseph DiMaggio Sr. - May 23, 2020 at 07:08 AM

JD

“Noreen, you had more life in you at 89 than most people have period. You were a good friend with a hell of a sense of humor who cared greatly for her friends and neighbors. We're sure you're up there playing ragtime, dancing, and drinking some great scotch. You will be missed.

Rest in Peace,

The DiMaggios

Joseph DiMaggio - May 21, 2020 at 09:14 PM