“ Dear Erik, MaryRina, and the entire Kaustel, Scribner, and Platt Family--I am so shocked and devastated over Pat's passing. She was a kind, caring, content and quiet woman. Pat enjoyed her daily routine, children, grandchildren, siblings, extended family and friends. Pat and I have something wonderful in common. We are the Mothers, Mothers in Law and Grandmothers of the Kaustel "4"--Erik, Randi, Mats and Lauren. That will never change. We enjoyed talking about our likenesses and differences--realizing we weren't so different at all. My prayer is that Pat's memory will serve as a blessing for all of you !!! Much Love, Ellen Katz

“ Erik, MaryRina and the entire Kaustel, Scribner and Platt Family--As you know, I am shocked and devastated over Pat's passing. She was a kind, caring, content and quiet woman who enjoyed her daily routine, her children, grandchildren, siblings and extended family and friends. Pat and I were blessed to share something wonderful. We are the Mothers, Mothers in Law and Grandmothers of the Kaustel "4"--Erik, Randi, Mats and Lauren. That will never change. We enjoyed our times together and our interesting conversations. We talked about our likenesses and differences--realizing we weren't so different at all. My prayer is that Pat's memory will serve as a blessing for all of you !!! Much Love, Ellen Katz

Our entire family is so devastated over Pat's passing. We considered her a part of our family and enjoyed her company whenever she was either at our functions or yours. She will be missed especially at Thanksgiving. We loved having her. We are all better people for knowing her. She was quiet but so smart. She loved her family very much especially her grandchildren.
Love, Aunt Susan, Uncle Howard, Jenifer, Shelby, and Jason
