

Mr. Philip Vijay Dorsett

September 8, 1980 - January 15, 2025

On January 15, 2025, Philip Vijay Dorsett beloved son of Nirmala K. and Thomas A. Dorsett.

It is extremely difficult, but I would like to announce the death of my son Philip Dorsett D.O.B 09/08/1980 on 01/15/2025. I was the director of school health when we adopted Philip at age 3 months ; the nurses at the Health Department arranged a party for us for which I was very grateful.

Philip attended Friends school from Pre K till he graduated high school in 1999. We had adopted him from Chicago. He was a happy bi-racial child who was all smiles the first day we saw him. He graduated from the Savannah college of art and design and recently had his own business refurbishing cars. He had extraordinary mechanical abilities and was an excellent worker. He loved working on cars. He was a very talented, compassionate and kind hearted person.

Why did you leave me old and blind to face the ravages of time.

“ So sorry to hear about Phil’s passing. I worked with him at Audio Connection for years. He was always the level headed, calm person no matter the situation. So easy to get along with, intelligent, humorous and talented.

“ I have the great privilege of being one of Philip's cousins. I remember Phil coming over with his parents to my parents house often growing up and all the good times we had. It was a pleasure to watch him transform from a fun loving kid into an exceptional man. An amazing artist, incredibly creative, and talented in many ways. When my father passed in 2022, Phil sent me a very nice message that meant a lot to me. He will be missed greatly.

“ Tom and Nirmala,
Gerry and I were so saddened to hear of Philip's death. When we lived on Wickford Road across from you, I remember our children running up and down Wickford and riding big wheels. It was a magical time for us and our girls. Soon Ei and Ahn Ei, recall those days with great fondness .Philip was part of those special memories. I remember Philip as a gentle kid. Soon Ei and he were at Friends for one year before we moved. Our thoughts are with you.
