“ Priscilla was my dear godmother and my "Aunt Pris". She was there for me at each and every Christmas and birthday with a beautiful gift. She also gave me a wedding shower that was as creative and fun as she was. I felt special when I was with her - she always showed delight to see or hear from me. I am glad I was able to visit her last year.

Pris was also one of my mother's oldest and dearest friends (Alice Lippincott). They knew each other all their lives, starting in Ocean City MD. Pris was the one to get my mother up to Baltimore to live and introduced her to my father. (So I really owe my life to her.) My mother is so sad and really heartbroken now that Pris is not around to share life with. Her passing is a huge loss to my mother and a dear loss to me as well. I have many happy memories of being with her, and my mother has a lifetime of memories.

The world is a better place in that Pris was in it. We will dearly miss her sparkling eyes and happy voice and wonderful spirit.

Best to you all,

Louisa (Lippincott) Avery
